

INVITATION TO A HALF DAY EVENT

MAKING CO-PRODUCTION A REALITY

Experience a specially commissioned interactive, drama-based event designed with and for Council employees, disabled people, families, partners and providers to identify their part in making co-production a reality.

Overarching aims:

- To explore how we enable disabled people to shape the support they receive in order to lead empowering and fulfilling lives.
- To promote the values and behaviours that underpin a culture where we are all equal partners in finding solutions.

The events feature real local stories and experiences, performed by actors, to provide an accessible and safe way of exploring issues, perspectives and solutions.

Friday, 16th September 2016

Morning: 9.15am – 12.30pm

Afternoon: 1.30pm – 4.45pm

Gloucester Guildhall

23 Eastgate Street, Gloucester GL1 1NS

How to book:

To reserve your free place (please state morning or afternoon) please contact Holly Davies on 01494 794264. Or email your contact details to hollydavies@thegarnettfoundation.com You will be sent a confirmation with full details.

The Garnett Foundation turns traditional learning approaches on their head: rather than starting with the theory and trying to apply it, participants are plunged head-first into a real-life situation and need to think their way around it. This is key to delivering the culture change we are aiming for.

Attendees have left the room commenting that they've never experienced training quite like it, that the time flew by and that it's really made them think.

Agy Pasek, Strategy and Transformation Manager
Gloucestershire County Council